To Whom It May Concern

RE: J. Rowse Strategic Consulting Ltd.

We are pleased to advise and confirm that in our dealings with J. Rowse Strategic Consulting Ltd. our experience has been more than satisfactory.

Mr. Rowse and his team have exhibited a high level of professionalism and integrity.

Their project management skills are of the highest order. The Rowse team's expertise range from successful managing issues, such as, but not limited to (a) regulatory affairs with the BC Ministry of Environment, to Health Authorities, to Regional Districts and local governments, and; (b) to the designing of complex systems, and; (c) to the installation and construction of new or the repairing of sewage wastewater systems.

We invite anyone to contact us directly for further information.

Yours truly,

PINNACLE ENVIRONMENTAL TECHNOLOGIES
